

Michigan State University, The Eli Broad College of Business, Department of Marketing is seeking applications for one marketing faculty position with a primary focus in marketing strategy and with excellent quantitative skills. Primary responsibilities are in research and teaching, including MBA teaching. Grants and service activities are valued highly, also. One of the largest business schools in the U.S., the Broad College of Business full-time MBA program was ranked 2nd for return-on-investment and 20th overall in the U.S. by BusinessWeek in 2010. The position is open to assistant or associate professors (without tenure). This is a tenure system position on an academic year basis. A doctorate in marketing is preferred plus demonstrated accomplishments in research and teaching at an AACSB accredited university. The reviews of applications will continue until the position has been filled. The preferred starting date is August 16, 2012. Applications must be submitted online at: <https://jobs.msu.edu>. Refer to posting # 4593. For additional information, please contact Dr. Glenn Omura (omura@msu.edu). MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The university actively encourages applications of women, persons of color, veterans, and persons with disabilities.