Assistant Professorship in Strategic and International Management

Copenhagen Business School (CBS) invites applications for a vacant Assistant Professorship in Strategic and International Management at the Department of Strategic Management and Globalization (SMG). The Assistant Professorship will involve research and teaching within the area of Strategic and International Management as well as collaboration with the business community.

The department employs an international group of 34 faculty members including 14 PhD students (stipends and industrial). The core research areas of SMG are strategic and international management. It is the ambition of the department to develop into one of Europe's top research department in strategic management and international business.

SMG Faculty teaches at all levels, from the bachelor level to the PhD level, and is strongly engaged in course development and innovation of teaching programs. Teaching responsibilities of the department comprise undergraduate and graduate teaching in strategic and international management.

The assistant professorship is a non-tenured position of 4 years with research and teaching obligations. To fulfill the research requirements of the position, the applicant who is selected for the position is expected to be physically present on a regular basis and actively participate in the teaching and research activities of the department. The successful applicant is required to participate in the assistant professor programme at CBS on teaching principles and methods in order to fulfill the pedagogical requirements made at the end of the term of employment as assistant professor.

Responsibilities

- Teaching and associated examination in existing CBS programmes, including executive education
- Individual and group based research meeting high international standards
- Promoting CBS's academic reputation
- Initiating fund raising and coordinating research projects
- Promoting the teaching and research capabilities of CBS and other relevant assignments at the school
- Contributing to the administrative responsibilities of the department and to CBS-wide tasks
- Communicating findings to the public in general and to CBS's stakeholders in particular
- Research, including responsibility for the academic development of the relevant discipline
- Responsibility for publishing, scientific communication and research-based teaching
- Active participation in the regular research activities, such as research seminars, workshops and conferences.

- The assistant professor is expected to contribute to the development and application of the research of the department's research areas and to maintain and strengthen CBS's international research position

Qualifications

The applicant must hold a PhD or the equivalent. Emphasis is placed on the applicant's research potential, which means that a researcher with a large research potential may be preferred to a researcher with a large research production.

The applicant must have professional proficiency in English (written and spoken).

CBS has a broad commitment to the excellence, distinctiveness and relevance of its teaching and research programmes. Candidates who wish to join us should demonstrate enthusiasm for working in an organization of this type (highlighting, for example, relevant business, educational, and dissemination activities).
