

Job Announcement at Tunghai University, Taiwan

The Department of International Business at Tunghai University is seeking candidates for a full-time faculty position in International Marketing/International Business at the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor, starting on August 1, 2013.

Job Description: We are seeking an individual with research interests in International Marketing/International Business. The successful applicant will be expected to contribute to our undergraduate and master's programs, 9 hours a week, and conduct research in the area of his/her interest.

Job Qualifications: The applicants are required to have (1) a Ph.D. in Management, (2) excellent analytical, writing, and teaching skills, (3) excellent verbal and written English skills, (4) and outstanding research potential.

Salary and Benefits: (1) Annual salary is approximately US$31,500 (Assistant) ~ US$43,000 (Full), set by the Ministry of Education; (2) National Health Insurance Plan; (3) Attractive Summer/Winter break schedules; (4) Free on-campus furnished faculty housing for two years; and (5) Research grants supported by the Department, University, or National Science Council.

Application Procedure: Applicants should submit (1) an English CV, (2) a brief statement of teaching and research interests, (3) a copy of representative publications, and (4) two letters of recommendation to intrade@thu.edu.tw by Apr. 10, 2013.

Tunghai University: Tunghai University was founded by the United Board for Christian Colleges in China in 1953, designed by the world-known architecture masters I. M. Pei and C. K. Chen, and was ground-broken by then American Vice-president Richard Nixon. Luce Chapel, also designed by I. M. Pei and C. K. Chen, is one of most photographed architectural masterpieces in Taiwan.

<http://www.thu.edu.tw/english/index.php>