MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

The 2013 Annual Meeting of the AIB-US Northeast Chapter will be held October 10-12, 2013 at Connecticut Convention Center, 200 Columbus Boulevard, Hartford, CT 06103.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Competitive papers, extended abstracts, and proposals for special sessions are invited for the topic areas listed below. Papers and proposals in other business related areas are welcome as well. Papers focusing on the region of Middle-East and North Africa will be given special consideration. Submissions will be blind refereed and a select number of papers will be published in the conference proceedings. Publication in the proceedings does not preclude subsequent publication in other journals when proper acknowledgements are made. The submission guideline can be found at the conference website <http://conference.aibne.net>.

By submitting a manuscript, the author(s) certifies that it is not copyrighted or previously published, has not been presented or accepted or is not currently under review for presentation at another professional meeting. At least one author must register for the conference. If more than one author presents the paper, each presenter must register.

Doctoral and other students are encouraged to submit papers. There is a special discount on registration fee for doctoral students.

A limited number of invited papers will also be presented by some distinguished academics.

ABSTRACT AND WORK-IN-PROGRESS

Abstracts (up to one page) and work-in-progress papers (3-4 pages) describing an ongoing research project or study can be submitted. However, such papers will not be considered for publication in the conference proceedings.

SPECIAL SESSIONS

Proposals for special sessions (symposia or panels) focusing on a single issue, single country, or single region are welcome. Any such special session would have a moderator and 3-4 presenters offering their unique perspectives. A proposal for a special session should not exceed three pages and should include the topic and purpose of the session, the names and affiliations of participants, complete address of all presenters including phone, fax and emails. The duration of a special session will be up to 75 minutes. All presenters of a special session must register for the conference and be present at the time of the presentation.

All papers, extended abstracts, and proposals for special sessions must be received electronically on or before Thursday, August 15, 2013.

BEST PAPER AWARDS

There will be a Best Paper Award that will be given during the Award Luncheon on October 12. There will also be a Best Student Paper Award. A committee will select the winners. All papers submitted before the deadline will automatically be considered for the Best Paper Award.

A few selected papers presented at the conference will also be published in the Journal of International Comparative Management.
