

MICHIGAN STATE
UNIVERSITY | Office of the Vice President for Governmental Affairs

FOODPLUS | DETROIT

Presents

The Legacy of Africans and African Americans in Food, Agriculture and Resource Systems

Dialogue Series & Gallery

Special Event of The

African World Festival Detroit 2014

Friday, August 15 to Sunday August 17

Hosted in The
Charles H. Wright
Museum of African American History
Latimer Cafe

Daily 11:00am to 7:00 pm

For more information contact: Renee V. Wallace | Renee@FoodPlusDetroit.org

Presents

The Legacy of Africans and African Americans in Food, Agriculture and Resource Systems

Dialogue Series & Gallery

Times	Friday, August 15	Saturday, August 16	Sunday, August 17
11:00 am	Agriculture, Education & Careers  MSU Faculty & African MSU BHEARD Scholar	11:00-12:30	Agriculture & Art
12:00 noon		Agriculture & Schools	Agriculture & Economic Impact
1:00 pm	Agriculture & Food Justice "Cook, Eat, Talk" session Live interviews & stories	12:30-1:30 Agriculture & The Media	Agriculture & Environment
2:00 pm		Join DBCFSN @ Main Library 2-4pm The Explorer Room 313-345-3663	Agriculture & Cooking with Local Foods
3:00 pm		The History of African Americans Cooperative Economics - Jessica Gordon Nembhard, Ph.D.	Agriculture & Accelerating Opportunities FOODPLUS DETROIT
4:00 pm	Agriculture & Detroit Future City Strategic Framework	4:30 Agriculture & African Americans Legacy BUGS Conference invite	Agriculture & Women NIWAA Detroit Chapter Launch Announcement
5:00 pm	Agriculture & Our Stories Special Guest: Dr. Monica White	5:30 Agriculture & Community Agriculture & Rural/Urban Growers	Agriculture & Our Stories
6:00 pm			Agriculture & Youth – Food Warriors

Schedule is subject to change

