DOCTORAL STUDENT CONSORTIUM

Doctoral students are encouraged to submit working papers to the doctoral student consortium. Selected distinguished academics will be invited to participate in the consortium. There is a special discount on registration fee and hotel rate for students.

BEST PAPER AWARD

The Bryant University International Business Program Best Paper Award and Best Ph.D. student paper award, based on the recommendations of reviewers, will be given during the Award Luncheon on November 15. The format of the Consortium will facilitate a constructive discussion among the doctoral students and the participating faculty on topics such as high-impact international business research, managing the dissertation stage, job search process, and successful entry into the academic career. In addition, students will receive feedback on their individual research projects as well as ideas and guidance regarding their future research.

All full-length papers submitted before the deadline will automatically be considered for the Best Paper Award and special issue publication. There will also be a Best Student Paper Award.

PUBLISHING OPPORTUNITIES

The best papers of the conference will be considered for publication in the Journal of Comparative International Management. Submissions on relevant topics in Entrepreneurship may be considered for the New England Journal of Entrepreneurship and the Transnational Corporations Review. All accepted conference papers will be published as an abstract in the 2014 AIB-NE Conference Proceedings.

Paper submission needs to be categorized into one of the topical tracks. Each paper must be submitted to only one track. Please select the track closest to your proposal from the list below:

SUBMISSION GUIDELINE

All submissions will be blind refereed and a selected number of papers will be published in the conference proceedings. Publication in the proceedings does not preclude subsequent publication in other journals when proper acknowledgements are made. The submission guidelines can be found at the conference website:

<http://conference2014.aibne.net>.

By submitting a manuscript, the author(s) certifies that it is not copyrighted or previously published, has not been presented or accepted or is not currently under review for presentation at another professional meeting. At least one author must register for the conference. If more than one author presents the paper, each presenter must register.

The manuscripts should be typed in a single Microsoft Word document containing all exhibits and figures.

1. All papers should be double-spaced and should NOT exceed 30 pages (excluding the Title page and references).
2. All information identifying the authors should be removed from the paper. Select File/Properties and set AIBNE as author.
3. All submission must have a SEPARATE title page with the title of the paper, the name(s), affiliation(s), and complete address of all authors including phone, fax, and email.
4. In case of multiple authors, the name of the correspondence author should be clearly indicated.

All submissions must be sent by August 1. Electronic submissions will be acknowledged by return e-mail upon receipt. Acceptance decisions will be made by September 21, 2014. Specific instructions will be sent to the authors of accepted manuscripts along with the acceptance notification.

The deadline for pre-registration is October 10, 2014. The pre-registration is $300 ($100 for students). An additional $100 will be charged for late registration. Registration includes a copy of conference proceedings, most meals during the conference, a reception, refreshments between sessions, and the award luncheon. In addition, some sightseeing tours and factory tours will be available for those who are inclined.

The tentative conference program will be uploaded on the website of AIBNE (<http://aibne.net>) by September 30, 2014.

HOTEL AND TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

The Renaissance Providence Downtown Hotel will serve as the host hotel and conference venue. Bryant University has arranged an exceptional hotel room rate of $129 plus tax per night. Details regarding booking reservations will be provided to successful contributors along with their acceptance letters.

The Renaissance Providence is housed within the original exterior design commissioned by the Freemasons during the 1920s. Due to the Great Depression, construction of the Temple was never completed.

Providence, RI is an exuberant destination city with a national reputation for excellence in satisfying every artistic, culinary and historic palette.
