

FREE special field trip for students interested in Gender, Justice, and Environmental Change (GJEC)!

Friday, April 17
8am-5pm

Travel to the Kalamazoo area to explore how gender intersects migrant farmworker issues:

Visit Farmworker Legal Services to learn about farmworkers and their experiences with workplace sexual assault. We will also visit Migrant Education Summer Program where we will learn about life in the camps and realities for migrant children. Additional stops being planned...more details to come.

We will gather as a group in 204 International Center at 8:00am sharp! Transportation and box lunches will be provided. Please indicate in your RSVP if you have any special dietary requests. Contact gencen@msu.edu if you have any questions.

Please RSVP to gencen@msu.edu by April 10th.
