Perspectives on Headquarters – Subsidiary Relationships in the Contemporary MNC

Editors: Tina C. Ambos (University of Sussex), Björn Ambos (University of St. Gallen) and Julian Birkinshaw (London Business School).

Series: Research in Global Strategic Management

The debate on how to configure the MNC so that it is resilient, ambidextrous and adaptive continues to grow. One focus is the relationship between organizational units in the corporation. This includes the classic headquarters-subsidiary relationship, and relationships between sister subsidiaries, corporate and regional HQs, and physical and virtual units.
