

CALL FOR PAPERS

Plymouth Doctoral Colloquium (PDC) 2015

Thursday 4 - Friday 5 June 2015
Mast House, 24 Sutton Harbour, Plymouth, UK, PL4 0HJ

Plymouth University's Faculty of Business is pleased to host the 10th annual Ph.D. conference under the theme 'Challenging Practice Through Research'.

Formerly known as the Postgraduate Symposium, the new Doctoral Colloquium will commemorate 10 years of Doctoral Research Excellence in the Faculty of Business. The priority disciplines for the PDC 2015 include (but are not limited to):

- Business
- Management
- Policy and Law
- Governance

Importantly, this landmark doctoral colloquium features:

- A supportive environment for showcasing Ph.D. research
- Instant feedback from a host of expert researchers
- Networking with journal editors and publishers
- Inspiring keynotes from leading practitioners and academics

Confirmed keynote speakers, panel members and journal editors include:

Professor Kim Stevenson

Deputy Director
Research Centre for Law and Criminal Justice

Dr Mark Hyde

Editor-in-Chief
Social and Public Policy
Review

Dr Paul Jones

Editor-in-Chief
International Journal of Entrepreneurial
Behaviour

In addition to paper presentations, the PDC offers 'getting published' workshops to be supported by an expert line-up of editors and published researchers.

Extended abstracts of 800 – 1200 words are welcome for 15 minutes presentations; papers will be published in the official conference proceedings.
