Hilton

Hilton 2018 Industry Partner of the Year

It all started in Cisco, Texas. In 1919, Conrad Hilton purchased his first hotel called, The Mobley. He continued to expand in Texas and the West Coast throughout the 1920s and 1930s. In 1943, Hilton purchased the Roosevelt and Plaza Hotels in New York City, making them the first coast-to-coast hotel group in the United States. Since that time, Hilton has had many firsts. They were the first hotel company to place televisions in guest rooms; the first hotel company to implement a 100% satisfaction guarantee; and Conrad Hilton was the first hotelier to appear on the cover of TIME Magazine.

Today, Hilton has more than 5,400 properties in over 100 countries. It is comprised of 14 brands and 825,000 hotel rooms. They employ over 220,000 people worldwide and are listed as number 33 on the 2018 Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For list with 93% of employees saying they are proud to tell others they work for Hilton.

Chris Brock is the Sr. Director of Development for the Northwest Region at Hilton. He is responsible for the development of Hilton's entire portfolio of brands, with the exception of Waldorf Astoria and Conrad Hotels, within the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. Mr. Brock's previous positions with Hilton Worldwide included management roles within Market Analysis and Market Research. Chris received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration from the University of Memphis in Memphis, Tennessee.

Gary Finnell (BA '79) is the Senior Director of Development for Hilton Worldwide, with responsibilities for franchise development in the Southeast region. He was promoted to Senior Director in 2011, and has executed over 400 franchise agreements, producing more than $600 million in net present value for Hilton. Mr. Finnell graduated from Michigan State University in 1979 with a Bachelor's degree in Hospitality Business! While at MSU, Gary was a founding member of the MSU Spartan Spirits, which eventually became The Izzone, as well as co-chair of Les Gourmets. Gary now serves on The School of Hospitality Business Alumni Association Executive Board of Directors.
