SCHOOL OF BUSINESS STUDIES

Announces

INTERNATIONAL CASE DEVELOPMENT COMPETENCY TRAINING ON "INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN EMERGING MARKETS"-IEEM 2021

School of Business Studies, Sharda University announces-IEEM 2021 in association with its academic partner-Emerald Publications, and their Case Collection Emerald Emerging Market Case Study EMCS. We invite prospective Case authors to participate in International Case Development Competency Training on Innovation and Entrepreneurship in Emerging Markets-IEEM 2021 from April 22, 2021 onwards and seek suitable publication opportunities.

ABOUT IEEM 2021

Change, Innovation and Growth have been instrumental behind creation of authentic opportunities by any entrepreneur. An entrepreneur faces variegated challenges while exploring a business model with distinctly unique elements. It's essential for an entrepreneur to study and understand his customers' pain points, their priorities and how value addition can be done to maintain viability of a fledgling venture. Businesses need to match or exceed the competition, procure raw material or technology, raise finance, or market their offerings. Sourcing funds for an instinctive idea, assessing the viability and size of the business proposition, building a team of like-minded experts in their roles, balancing career with an unpredictable opportunity, on-the-spot creative thinking for an alternative route to an unprecedented situation are a few of unforeseen challenges faced in these ecosystems. A collaborative business approach is thus looked to validate an unknown factor that balances complicating questions in context of expectations.

The proposed workshop would broadly focus on developing primary case studies so as to document the tribulations of an Entrepreneur. This novel workshop aims at handholding case authors by providing them constructive mentorship at every stage of a primary Case Study development. Case authors will be guided by Industry mentors, renowned resource persons and academicians, eminent Case Authors, copy editing professionals and journal editors to cite a few, at all phases of case writing and publication. IEEM 2021 is a unique collaboration involving academia, established industry partners, start-up ventures, entrepreneurs and scholars. A novel attempt is afoot to guide and handhold aspiring case-authors to work from a basic idea to a final case study.

IEEM 2021 PROGRAM STRUCTURE-SPANNING NINE WEEKS

Phase 1: Develop Scoping Report
