Following the success of the Inaugural “Out of (and Into) Africa” conference - International Symposium on African Consumer Marketing and Firm Strategies - which was held at the Graves School of Business and Management, Morgan State University, Baltimore in 2018, we are now excited to launch the next edition of the conference. This second edition of the conference is completely online (using the zoom platform), includes multi-HBCU involvement and has three major tracks: firm strategy, consumer marketing and society & institutions. We received strong submissions leading to insightful selected papers, and now present the preliminary program for the Second “Out of (and into) Africa” conference!

We ask that all participants (authors, panelists, guest speakers and audience members) please register immediately at the link given above, Registration is quick and free of charge. Having provided the information requested on the registration form, you will be emailed (within a couple of weeks) a Zoom link for the conference. We hope to make this second edition of the “Out of (and Into) Africa” series an even more successful event than the first, and look forward to productive contributions by all. The following is the Preliminary Conference Program:
