

CALL FOR PAPERS Building a Better Future: Restoration, Resilience, and Sustainability 19th Annual Conference Hosted by Tobin College of Business St. John's University Rome - Campus June 29-July 1, 2022 www.gbrsconference.org

Join us in Rome, for three days of discussions and presentations designed to explore: Building a Better Future: Restoration, Resilience, and Sustainability

A collaboration between St. John's University's Tobin College of Business and a diverse group of international scholars and Universities, the GBRS has provided a collaborative and welcoming environment for sharing research and establishing networks across disciplines and borders for the past nineteenth years. We invite theoretical, applied and empirical papers, case studies, and panel discussion proposals from scholars in the business fields. Ph.D. Dissertations and panel proposals are invited for this interdisciplinary, international symposium.

Why Attend GBRS?

Opportunities to Publish and Awards //

- Best papers will be considered for publication in three peer-reviewed journals published by St. John's University, New York, USA.:
  - Journal of Vincentian Social Action
  - Review of Business
  - Journal of the Global Business Research Symposium
- Journal of Competitiveness Studies Journal of Euromarketing
- All papers and presentations are blind reviewed and can be submitted for publication in the conference proceedings with an ISBN number.
- Best papers and best discussant awards.

Opportunities for Learning Mentoring and Networking //

- We are committed to creating a diverse culture that attracts international scholars who truly desire to assist one another in their efforts to improve and expand their research.
- We assure that presenters have the opportunity to spend time together and create relationships that lead to joint projects across borders.
- In keeping with our commitment to collaboration and learning, PhD, MBA, and MS students are encouraged to present dissertation and thesis work at all stages of development.
